

HEART OF CLASS

The perfect Valentine's gifts from Artisan Homeware

Finding a Valentine's gift that is both practical and great looking isn't the easiest of tasks.

From overly sentimental mugs to giant teddy bears, they might make an impact on February 14th but are pretty redundant the rest of the year. Introducing the Valentine's Day collection from Polish pottery specialists Artisan Homeware.

The premium pieces have been handpicked by Artisan Homeware founder Kate Nowakowski and bring together practical homewares with striking aesthetics. From punchy nibble bowls and tea-time accessories to generous baking dishes, these are items that are designed for use every day.

Kate Nowakowski, founder of Artisan Homeware, said: "I am a big believer in investing in great quality homewares that can be used all year round. Our 'Hearts' collection and heart-shaped bakeware don't give off cheesy-Valentine's vibes. Instead, the intricate detailing and bold patterns – in the signature Polish pottery shades of white and blue – exude timeless sentiment. Polish pottery is for life, not just Valentine's Day!"

ABOUT ARTISAN HOMEWARE

Established in 2013, Artisan Homeware is an independent retailer of ethical homeware and textiles from around the world.

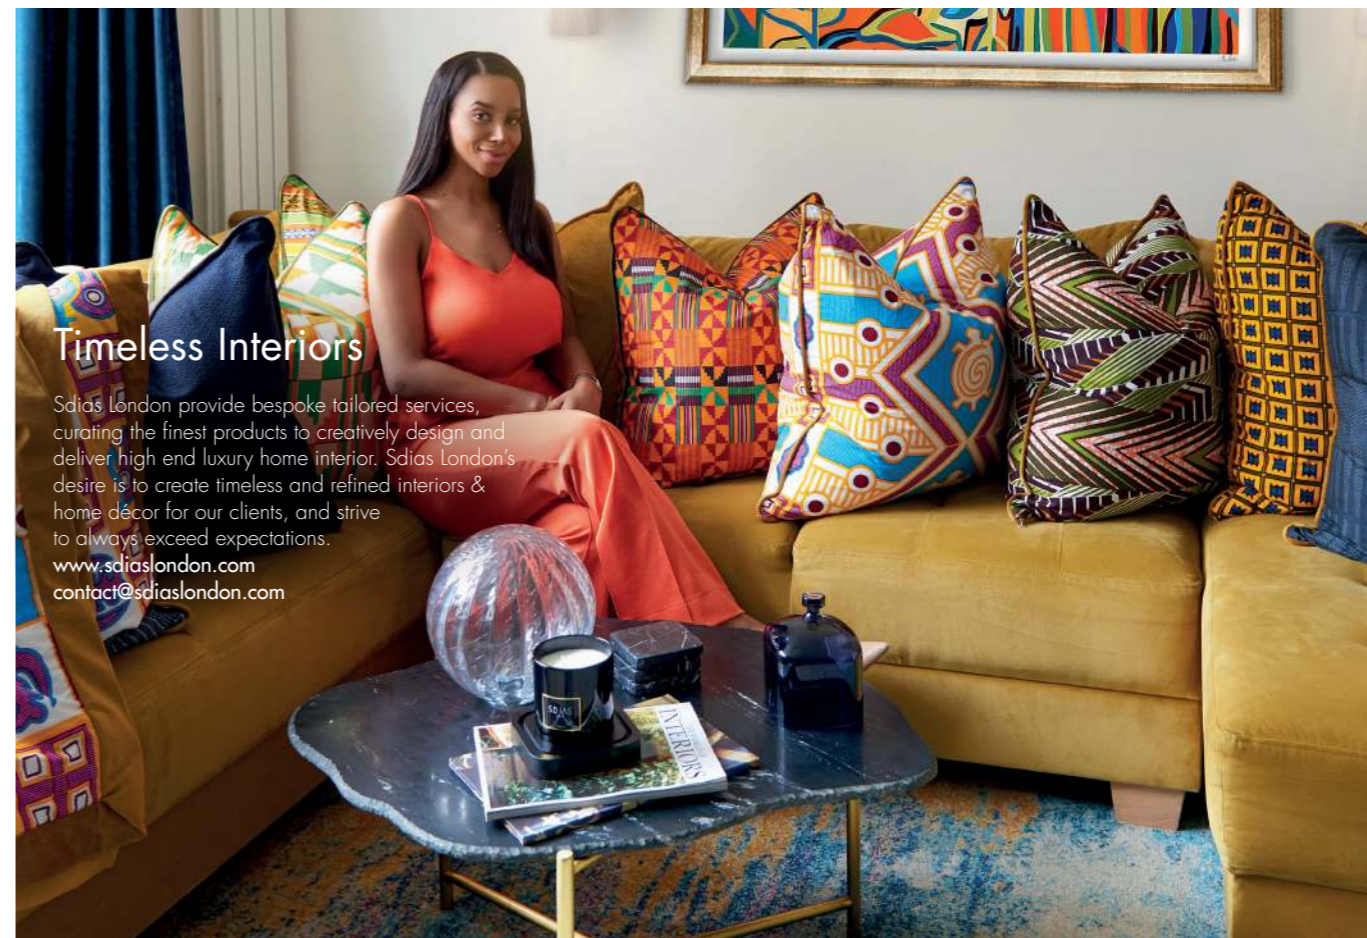

Renowned for its extensive selection of traditional, handmade Polish pottery, including many exclusive patterns, Artisan Homeware is one of the few UK sales partners of Ceramika Artystyczna – one of the oldest and most highly-respected stoneware producers in the pottery town of Boleslawiec.

From textiles through to ceramics, the common threads running through all products are traditional craftsmanship, vibrant colours and stunning pattern work. What's more, all products comes from suppliers who adopt environmentally and worker-friendly production processes, and Fairtrade certification where appropriate. ■

All products are available from artisanhomeware.co.uk
